The Montclair Lions Club provides eyeglasses, hearing aids and examinations for those unable to afford these services in the local area. The Club also provides health and welfare assistance to the area's needy as well as scholarship awards to youth demonstrating a strong commitment to community service. Our fund-raising supports the Federation for the Blind, ACTS, funding for food banks and homeless shelters, Children First, Scouting and other local needs.

For additional information about the Montclair Lions please visit our Websites;
